

10 years. Stated he had seen Mrs. Easton about 4 times, the last time in 1917, when she spent a few days at 27 East First St., Bayonne. He refused to go out to her pig farm with her as she requested. G.T.P. 9/13/26

Cornelius Cadmus, R.F.D. #3, New Brunswick, N.J., 13 yrs County Assessor. Has known Mrs. Gibson since she came into Franklin Township 15 yrs ago. He was also secretary of Board of Health of Franklin Township and stated that during that time he received several complaints about the unsanitary conditions which existed at the Gibson farm. He said that she had been summoned before the board for violations of Sanitary Laws but was never convicted because she promised to remedy conditions, but would never keep her promises. Claims that she is a woman who draws upon her imagination to a great extent and is untruthful and untrustworthy. While he was County Assessor the county board ordered assessments to be raised on various farms. Mrs. Gibson appeared before the board and charged that the reason her assessment was raised was due to the fact that she didn't give Cadmus liquor and other gifts the same as was done by other property owners.

Walter Brown, son of Mrs. Charles H. Brown, said that he had been in and around the Gibson farm with Willie Easton for a number of years; that Mrs. Gibson was a peculiar woman and had never permitted him to enter the house. He understood that
